

Call for Papers

Tyndale to TikTok

The Bible's Translation, Distribution, and Impact

28–29 October 2026

Ripon College Cuddesdon, Oxford

The Tyndale Society

Cuddesdon & Tyndale Society Conference 28–29 October 2026

Call for Papers

Ripon College Cuddesdon and The Tyndale Society are pleased to announce a Call for Papers for a conference on 28–29 October 2026. In celebration of the 500th anniversary of the publication in 1526 of William Tyndale's translation of the New Testament from Greek into English, this conference will celebrate Tyndale's life, work, and legacy. Inspired by Tyndale's vision, this conference will also be an occasion to bring together scholars, clergy, and laypeople to learn and reflect critically and imaginatively about the Bible in general. Special attention will be given to the Bible's translation, distribution, and impact – past, present, and future. The organisers will consider the publication of conference proceedings.

For more details, see www.rcc.ac.uk/tyndale.

To respond to this Call for Papers with a proposal of a paper of either 30 minutes or 45 minutes (each to include brief Q&A), please send a title and an abstract (c. 150 words) to tyndale2026@rcc.ac.uk by 31 July 2026. Include your name, titles, and institutional affiliations. The conference schedule will be shaped by the responses. The organisers will consider the publication of the conference proceedings.