

THE TYNDALE SOCIETY (USA)

invites you to attend its semi-annual conference
at CHURCH OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN
212 W. Lancaster Avenue, Paoli, Pennsylvania
Saturday, October 25, 2025 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM
Doors open at 9:00 AM for refreshments.

Rev. Phillip Ellsworth, Rector
Church of the Good Samaritan
*The Life and Ministry of John Donne

Dr. Marilyn Button, Professor of English,
Lincoln University of Pennsylvania
*A Report on the 2025 Tyndale Society
International Conference

Mr. Christopher M. Kraus, Director of Music
Faith Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, Delaware
*"Reforming Music: from the English Reformation and Beyond"

Advance registration requested.
Lunch available - $10 for non-members.
Donations to defray costs gladly accepted!

For further information see www.tyndale.org

William Tyndale, who first translated the New Testament into modern English 87 years before the King James Version, was martyred for his work in 1536. All later English versions of the Bible are based upon the pioneering work of William Tyndale.

The mission of the Tyndale Society (USA) is to promote greater understanding of William Tyndale's contribution to the English Reformation and the broader world by his Bible translations and theological writings, and to encourage relevant research and study.

Our vision is to create an international community of students and scholars interested in Tyndale's work through membership, conference attendance, and publication of relevant scholarly and popular materials.